Dr. J. H. van Roijen
Ambassador of The Netherlands
2347 S Street N. W.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Herman:

Despite the admonition in your postscript, I cannot refrain from telling you of my appreciation for what you have said in your letter of May 28. I knew that you had worked with Foster in the days of the San Francisco Conference in 1945 and often thereafter, and your word of sincere appreciation is a real comfort to me.

Clover joins me in messages to Ann and to you.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
